

Brooks Brothers: The Black Fleece line of suiting has revolutionized this classic American brand, with fresh lines and modern tailoring. This mid-weight suit is a go-anywhere, do-anything ensemble for the modern man.

Cartier: The New York flagship of Cartier is one of the most famous retail corners in the world, and it is here that they'll be bringing their first serious collection of men's watches, including this Rotonde Astrotourbillon, one of the most beautiful and innovative new watches we've seen this year.

Asprey: If you're never fully dressed without the perfect watch on your wrist, take your collection on the road with Asprey's elegant padded box, designed to keep your favorites safe and close at hand.

Ettinger: This range of leather accessories combines a powerful aesthetic with just a little bit of flash—suitable, as they were made in collaboration with Bentley motorcars.

Berluti: Though best known for their luxuriously customized shoes and boots, the leather experts at Berluti have made their latest luggage set yet another homage to the intersection of form and function.

Missing image Hermis

Hermis: For the gentleman on the go, Hermis' princely leather overnight case has just enough room for a fresh shirt, a clean tie, and a few small sundries—all you need for a quick overnight jaunt.

Audemars: The new ambassador of Audemars Piguet jewelry is Moscow Ballet prima ballerina Svetlana Zakharova, who embodies the delicate strength and grace of the Millenary collection.

Richard Mille: Known for his strong, masculine lines and innovative constructions, watchmaker Richard Mille created this pocketwatch for a man who isn't afraid of something substantial—the chain unscrews to allow the mechanism to be used as a small clock.

Porsche Design: In the land of fast cars and bright sunshine, what could be better than a pair of sunglasses from the team at Porsche Design? Clean lines and a mirrored finish toe the line between modern and classic.

Roberto Cavalli: For a weekend in the city or a quick getaway to the Maldives, we love this upscale duffle bag from Roberto Cavalli, whose Cavalli Club in Dubai has quickly become a destination for vacationers and locals alike.

Miura: Katsuhiko Miura is one of the most well-respected crafters of precision golf clubs in the world, and his latest, the Miura Precious Edition, is a tour-quality utility club that is nevertheless extremely playable. Make sure this weapon is in your arsenal when you hit the course to impress.

Ulysse Nardin: In the tech-savvy world of Japan, you'll have no trouble standing out with the first cell phone from Swiss watchmakers Ulysse Nardin, combining the best of watchmaking craft with the latest mobile technology.